
CHAPTER 28: ARABIAN HORSE YOUTH ASSOCIATION CONSTITUTION (AHYA)

INTRODUCTION

The Arabian Horse Youth Association (AHYA) was established at the annual convention in 1994

CONSTITUTION OF THE ARABIAN HORSE YOUTH ASSOCIATION

ARTICLE I

NAME AND PURPOSE

Section 1.

The organization will be a division of the Arabian Horse Association and shall conduct business within the scope of the by-laws, Rules and Regulations of the Arabian Horse Association (AHA) and shall be called the Arabian Horse Youth Association.

Section 2.

The objectives and purposes of the Arabian Horse Youth Association hereafter referred to as the AHYA, shall be as follows:

- a. To acquaint youth association members with the organization, activities, and function of AHA.
- b. To promote the Arabian horse.
- c. To provide an area for youth to develop their knowledge and capabilities in working with each other and Arabian horses.
- d. To encourage scholarship, leadership and community interest as young citizens.
- e. To enable Youth Members to work in conjunction with the AHA Youth Advisory Board.

ARTICLE II

MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Types of Memberships.

This association shall have the following classes of members:

- a. AHYA Member Organization members: Consisting of active members of the AHA Youth Member Organizations. The designation "AHYA Member Organization" shall be defined as one youth Member Organization per AHA Member Organization, or any youth Member Organization acceptable to and approved by the AHYA and its Advisory Board.
- b. Individual members: Youth Membership is for individuals under the age of eighteen as of December 1 of the previous calendar year.

Section 2. Member Organizations

The AHYA shall be composed of those Member Organizations who are affiliated with a regular member AHA Member Organization, or those youth Member Organizations acceptable to AHYA. These clubs shall be referred to as Member Organizations.

Section 3. Admission of Member Organizations.

An AHYA Member Organization when not affiliated with an AHA Member Organization is eligible for membership with the AHYA when it:

- a. Submits application for membership with the AHYA. The application shall include:
 1. Name of Member organization.
 2. Aims and purposes, which shall not be contrary to those of the AHA or AHYA in any way.

3. Names and addresses of the officers of the Member Organization.
4. Name and address of each member in good standing of such Member Organization, which shall not be fewer than seven in number.
5. A written agreement of such Member Organization to be bound by the Articles of Incorporation and Constitution of the AHYA and Bylaws of the AHA, heretofore and hereafter duly adopted.
6. A written explanation as to why it can not affiliate with an AHA Member Organization.
7. A copy of the Member Organization's Constitution.

Section 4.

An AHYA Member Organization is considered in good standing with the AHYA when the following provisions are met:

- a. Annually, a minimum of seven individual membership fees be sent to AHYA along with a Member Organization membership list. AHYA is to be notified of any amendments made to the initial Member Organization constitution.
- b. No provision of the local AHYA Member Organization may be in conflict with the AHYA Constitution, AHA Bylaws, or general rules or regulations.
- c. Membership must be open to all youth 17 years of age and under interested in the Arabian horse.

ARTICLE III

OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section 1.

The business and property of the organization shall be managed and controlled by the AHYA Board and the AHA Youth Advisory Board in conjunction with the AHA Youth Activities Committee under the direction of the AHA Youth Department.

Section 2. Youth Delegates representation.

- a. The number and eligibility of Youth Delegates and alternates to the AHYA Annual Convention shall be based on the membership status of each affiliated Youth Member Organization as of the 1st day of June every year. Those affiliated Youth Member Organizations having between 7 to 15 youth members are entitled to one Youth Delegate; 16 to 30, two Delegates; 31 to 45, three Delegates, etc. The AHA office will supply the affiliated Youth Member Organizations with a list of AHYA members in good standing and any Delegate or alternate sent to represent that Youth Member Organization at the Annual AHYA Convention must have their name on that list.
- b. In cases where AHYA affiliated Member Organizations cannot send delegates to the AHYA Convention, the Region Youth Director shall be responsible for ensuring that their Region has delegate representation from their Region. (BOD 8/01)
- c. The names of selected Youth Delegates and alternates shall be certified by the AHYA affiliated Member Organization President and approved by the AHA Youth Coordinator for that Member Organization. These names will then be presented to AHYA Credentials Committee.

Section 3. Youth Board of Directors.

Each of the eighteen (18) Regions will elect one Youth Member to serve as a Regional Youth Director on the Youth Board of Directors. In order to serve as Director, a youth must be a current member of a member organization located in the Region that he/she would represent, and be not fewer than 14 or more than 17 years of age as of December 1st of the first year of his/her two-year term.

- a. Term of office: The term of office for each AHYA Regional Youth Director shall be a minimum of one year and a maximum of two years based on Regional discretion. This term will commence immediately following the annual AHYA Convention. No Regional Youth Director shall be eligible to hold office for more than two terms. Regional Youth Directors who have not completed their term and reach ineligible youth age may pay their AHA membership dues and finish their term with voting privileges. This will not entitle them to any other AHYA privileges, such as youth programs.

- b. Vacancy: In case of any vacancy in the Youth Board of Directors, the vacancy shall be filled by special election to be held in that Region.
- c. Quorum: A majority of the number of Youth Directors shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.
- d. Powers of the Board of Directors: The Youth Board of Directors shall have the power to take any action consistent with the current policy and purpose of AHA, subject to the approval of the AHYA Executive Committee.
- e. When a Regional Director is elected to an AHYA office, that director shall be replaced in his/her Region by a special election to be held in that Region.
- f. The Regional Youth Vice-Director may attend any open AHYA Board of Directors meeting when the Regional Youth Director is present or absent. The Regional Youth Vice-Director shall be entitled to attend any AHYA Board of Directors meeting and vote and shall count in determining a quorum of the AHYA Board of Directors if, and only if, the Regional Youth Director is absent.

Section 4. Officers.

The officers of the organization shall be the President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and Immediate Past President. Such officers shall hold that office for a period of one (1) year and until their successors are elected and qualified. Officers and Regional Directors shall take office at the close of the annual AHYA Convention.

- a. President: The President shall preside at all meetings of the members of the Youth Board. The President shall appoint all committees subject to the approval of the AHA Youth Advisory Board. The President shall report to all members annually on the status of the association and its activities during the preceding year. No director may serve more than two (2) terms of one year as President, unless to fill the unexpired term of the preceding President.
- b. Vice President: The Vice President shall, in the absence of the President, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the President and shall perform the duties as the President may prescribe.
- c. Secretary: The Secretary shall attend all meetings of the Youth Board and shall record or cause to be recorded all votes taken. The Secretary shall record the minutes of all proceedings in a minute book of the association to be kept for that purpose.
- d. Treasurer: The Treasurer shall keep or cause to be kept a full and accurate account of all receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the association. The Treasurer shall coordinate the collection of dues with the AHA Youth Department.
- e. Immediate Past President: The Immediate Past President shall serve as an advisor to the President.

Section 5. Election Procedures.

- a. The elected officers of the AHYA shall consist of the President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer.
- b. Election.
The officers shall be elected by the Youth Delegates in attendance at the annual AHYA Convention.
- c. Qualifications.
Candidates for office must be at least 14 years of age as of December 1st of the previous year. The candidates for office must be a current Youth Member of the AHYA and have a minimum of 1 full year previous membership at time of election. Each officer shall at all times during his continuance in office, be a qualified member of the AHYA or AHA.

- d. Application.

Potential candidates must submit an application to the AHA office by a specified due date. All candidates must be present at the annual meeting of the AHYA, and will be required to give an introductory speech at the General Session.

ARTICLE IV

ANNUAL YOUTH BOARD MEETINGS

The Youth Board will have a minimum of one annual meeting. The time and place of the annual meeting(s) will be announced at the time of the annual meeting(s) of the previous year.

ARTICLE V

ADVISORY BOARD

The Advisory Board of the AHYA shall consist of the President of the AHA, First Vice President, Executive Vice President, the Chairman of the AHA Youth Activities Committee, a member of the AHA Youth Department, and any additional members appointed by the Executive Committee of the AHA. This Advisory Board shall consist of at least four adults to assist the officers and Board of Directors of the AHYA in directing the activities of the AHYA. All actions and activities of the AHYA are subject to the approval of the AHYA Executive Committee and the AHA Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VI

PLACE OF BUSINESS

Section 1.

The place of business of this association shall be the AHA office in Aurora, Colorado.

Section 2.

All correspondence regarding the AHYA shall be directed to the Youth Department of the AHA in Aurora, Colorado.

ARTICLE VII

AMENDMENTS

The constitution of this organization may be amended at any time by the Youth Board with the approval of the AHA Youth Advisory Board and the AHA Board of Directors.